OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 6 April 1967

25X1 1. [] Returned to Representative Glenard Lipscomb the materials provided him by the American Management Association regarding their "Russian Project," along with an item he had made available to us from the publication VIET REPORT. With regard to the AMA item, Lipscomb was advised that our people felt that the Soviets would never let AMA get very far with this project even though, according to Lipscomb, they had already signed preliminary agreements for six locations. It was also indicated that sooner or later this activity will have to be cleared with the State Department. The Congressman had suggested earlier that it was his opinion that this should be discussed with the Department now.

25X1 2. [] Spoke to Congressman Michael Feighan (D., Ohio) [] of []. Feighan said after consideration he preferred we have someone else to introduce the bill. I subsequently spoke to Congressman Peter Rodino (D., N.J.) who introduced the bill the same day. 25X1

25X1 4. [] Met briefly with Congressman Dan Kuykendall (R., Tenn.) who accepted our invitation to attend the 20 April breakfast briefing at Headquarters.

Lillian Walters, in the office of Congressman Edward Biester (R., Pa.), called to confirm that the Congressman would attend the 20 April breakfast briefing. Miss Walters also asked for directions for driving to the Headquarters building in connection with an earlier visit planned by Mr. Biester.

We were also advised that the following first term congressmen would not be able to attend the breakfast: Charles W. Sandman (R., N.J.), Jerome R. Waldie (D., Calif.), and Abraham Kazen (D., Tex.).
